THE OTHER WES MOORE
Tues. April 16th @ 12:30 p.m.
Two kids with the same name living in the same city.
One grew up to be a Rhodes Scholar, decorated combat veteran, White House Fellow, and business leader. The other is serving a life sentence in prison for felony murder. Both grew up in similar neighborhoods and had difficult childhoods. Both were fatherless; they’d hung out on similar corners with similar crews, and ran into trouble with the police. At each stage of their young lives they came across similar moments of decision, yet their choices and the people in their lives would lead them to astonishingly different destinies. “The Other Wes Moore” tells the story of a generation of boys trying to find their way in a challenging and, at times, hostile world.

Join us during National Library Week as we discuss African-American maile identity and achievement. Two copies are reserved at the library.
Co-facilitated by Dr. William Hobbs, English professor and sponsor of “Chapt3r” poetry troupe as well as Henry Petithomme, founder of Youth Power Movement and Miami’s “Pull Up Your Pants” campaign.
Participants are welcome to bring their lunch.
