

FACULTY POSITION POSTING

Assistant Professor of Information Systems (tenure track)
Department of Computer Science, Math & Technology
School of Arts and Sciences

Nature of Work:

Florida Memorial University invites applications for a tenure track position as an assistant professor in information systems starting fall 2016. This is a faculty position requiring a strong academic background specifically in information Systems/or cybersecurity/or information technology. Reporting directly to the chair of the department of computer science, math, and technology.

Essential Duties:

- Teach information systems, cybersecurity, computer science, and information technology courses;
- Coordinate information systems and/or cybersecurity programs;
- Prepare and coordinate cybersecurity program that can meet one or two industrial (cybersecurity) certifications.
- Perform teaching, scholarship, service and professional development;
- Perform program assessment for accreditation;
- Work collaboratively with the other faculty to advance the programs;
- Actively seek financial support through external research and grants;
- Advise students for both academic and career fields.

Familiar with:

Oracle, SAP
SQL
Java
MIS
Systems Analysis
COBIT

Minimum Qualification and Training:

- Earned doctorate in information systems or related fields.
- Demonstrated success serving as an advocate for students.
- Demonstrated commitment to diversity and inclusion.
- Excellent oral, written, and interpersonal communication skills.
- Proficient in using data in assessment and decision making.
- Ability to foster a collaborative academic environment and cross-disciplinary initiative.
- Commitment to excellent in teaching and learning, scholarship, service and professional development.

Preferred Qualification and Training:

- Familiar with cybersecurity program.
- Familiar with managing programs for industrial certification such as CompTIA Security+, Microsoft Security Certification, and CISCO Security Certification.

TO APPLY:

Email cover letter of interest, resume and list of three references that includes names and contact information to: ben.wongsaroj@fmuniv.edu. Must reference Assistant of Information Systems (tenure track) in the subject line of your email.

SUPPLEMENTAL INFORMATION:

The employment process will consist of the completion of an application, background check, reference checks, and interview.

Review of application materials will begin immediately and continue until position is filled.

Florida Memorial University is an Equal Employment Opportunity Employer.