Miami Garden, FL, August 1, 2019 - The Midtown Commerce Center was buzzing with athletic energy as the room filled with FMU new staff, faculty members and community supporters of the Rebirth of Football at Florida Memorial University (FMU) at last night's reception.

Excitement over the Rebirth of Football was palpable. "I will match any donation made today to support football at Florida Memorial University," said Coach Ernest Jones.

From trainers to coaches, FMU's initiation to football will require corporate, community and alumni financial support. Everything, including new equipment, more staff and key partnerships are essential to the success of football at FMU.
