

Unusual Enrollment History Appeal Form

According to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS), an evaluation of your academic record is required due to your unusual enrollment history. Based on your unusual enrollment history, it has been determined that you are not eligible for Federal Student Aid (this includes, but is not limited to Pell Grant, SEOG Grant, Federal Work Study, Direct Student Loans, PLUS loans, etc.).

You have the option to appeal this decision by completing and returning this form and supporting documentation to the Financial Aid Office for review and evaluation

- List each school (including FMU) that you attended and from which you received a Pell Grant during the review period of 2016-17, 2017-18, and 2018-19. You may access that information using the National Student Loan Data System (www.NSLDS.ed.gov). Sign in with your FSA ID and FSA password to review your federal financial aid history. If one or more of the institutions you previously attended does not appear on FMU's academic transcript, you will be required to obtain an official academic transcript from that school.

Name of Institution	Academic Years Attended	Pell Grant Received?	Transcript Attached?

- If you did not earn any academic credit at an institution during the review period, you must attach a written statement that outlines, in detailed narrative form, any extenuating circumstances which may have contributed to your failure to earn academic credit. Attach documentation to support your appeal (e.g. medical claims/statements, police reports, copy of death certification/obituary, signed statement from an involved third party such as a counselor, priest, minister, documentation illustrating other commitments outside of school such as pay stubs, letter from employer, etc.).
