

NON-BUSINESS MBA CANDIDATES SEEKING ADMISSIONS

For MBA candidates whose undergraduate degree is in a field other than business or have not met prerequisite courses for the program.

An academic leveling course (ALC) is a course that provides a summary or overview of all the core subjects associated with a program of study. The ALC provides a comprehensive review of all the foundational material associated with the degree program. As a program prerequisite, the ALC ensures that students are leveled to the program of study as they start the degree program.

For Florida Memorial University MBA programs, the ALC will be completed by students holding a bachelor's degree in a non-business field.
